The Incredible MARK PROBERT

The living oracle of an amazing ancient wisdom

by

Ralph G. Warren

The bright afternoon sun streaming in the windows of a room in San Diego, California seemed glaringly, sharply indifferent to the eerie events in progress. Although the small gathering of about twenty-five people lounged comfortably in their chairs while a slight built little man seated at a card table spoke to them in a soft voice, there was a feeling of subdued excitement in the air. Suddenly the soft voice trembled slightly and said, "-----and now I'm beginning to feel-----." The voice trailed off. The little audience stirred briefly and sat wide-eyed, expectantly immobile with rapt attention. The speaker at the card table breathed heavily for a few moments, his head drooping forward as if nodding sleepily. Slowly he lifted his head as a strange, new personality seemed to possess his entire body, chuckled reassuringly and spoke English with a Chinese accent.

"I am Yada Di Shi'ite. I lived 500,000 years ago in the Himalayan mountains in a civilization called Yuga, meaning vast body. My city was Kaoti, meaning city of temples. I was a Kata or priest of the temples until I became a Yada or spirit light of the order of Shi'ite. The Shi'ite order exists today. There were 180 million people in my Civilization, not monkeys. Yuga was destroyed by a terrible earthquake which killed 80 million people. My body was crushed by a wall of the temple--- squashed me like a fly. But I took my body with me---

This simple but astounding story was repeated many times in 23 years 1.945-1968 with a wealth of detail. Fifteen teachers beside the Yada spoke through this remarkable man. There are more than 2000 two-track and four-track seven inch tapes of these lectures. Each lecture is from two to three hours long. These contain a clear, rational cosmology and a science-philosophy that is so revolutionary in its unorthodox perfection that it seems destined to profoundly affect the foundations of entrenched thought. This cosmology so brilliantly yokes science to philosophy that many professional men in psychiatry, psychology, physics, astronomy and related professions have been fascinated by the haunting logic.

The entranced little man through whom the Yada spoke was the late Mark Probert born in Bayonne, N. J. February 5, 1907, and died in San Diego, California February 22, 1969. His passing was unnoticed in the public press but thousands of national and international devotees felt deeply the loss of this very human, kindly personality who had astounded and shocked great numbers of people. The extremely ancient language of Yu which Yada spoke for about ten minutes before reverting to English became an item of great interest to professors of ancient languages at the University of Southern California. One of these was Hans von Colbert, professor of ancient and modern Asiatic languages. They elected to listen for about forty-five minutes to the highly questionable source, but became so enchanted that they listened and talked for five hours and begged for more time. Professor Colbert spoke Hindustani, and Chinese dialects with Yada and discussed Inca and Maya writings. He understood the root words in the Yu language. Yada told him that the Yu language is the mother tongue or universal language.

Mark himself did not cultivate nor welcome his strange gift as it was often a worry and a burden to him. But from childhood the evidence of something unusual in his depth of perception gradually became a pressing urge that grew stronger and more insistent as the years passed. His marriage to his wife, Irene, in Yuma Arizona on July 4, 1942 was the event that ushered in the most phenomenal aspect of the latent forces burgeoning within him which now seemed to clamor for expression. His new wife promptly informed him that he not only talked in his sleep but talked in foreign languages. After seeking help from a psychiatrist who ridiculed the idea, they met a man by the name of Meade Layne, PhD, who had an excellent academic background. He had been a professor at the University of Southern California and several other universities, and had been a department head at Wesleyan, Illinois and at Southern College, Florida. Quite apart from his academic training, he had considerable interest and knowledge in the fields of metaphysical and occult laws. He casually suggested that Mark might be a trance medium. Mark detested the word "medium" and once started to write a book entitled Medium Rare to disavow the hated label. But let Mark tell this part of his story:

"I spent two hours with Mr. Layne, in which time he quizzed me on a number of things including the state of my physical and emotional health. Then he asked me if I had ever had any experience with psychic phenomena. I told him I had and related a number of them to him. He listened with what I thought was a great deal of patience and then said that my talking in foreign languages in my sleep seemed to indicate that discarnate beings might be taking control of me during sleep. He had me sit at a small card table and placed Irene on my right. I was told I might become entranced. The idea of suddenly losing consciousness was a little unnerving and I was about to express myself when I was struck with a wave of dizziness that nearly rolled me off my chair; the one and only dizzy spell I ever had. Then the spell passed followed by what I can only call elation. But what tremendous elation it was! Undulating waves of chills ran up my body from ankles to solar plexus to head. But they were not cold chills but rather the kind one gets when listening to exceptionally beautiful music or while observing an unusual sunset or sunrise. How long I stayed in this state of ecstasy I do not know, but when it left me and I was awake again, Mr. Layne and Irene told me I had been in what seemed to be a deep state of trance for approximately forty-five minutes and that a voice, quite unlike my own, had introduced itself by the name of Martin Lattimore Lingford. He said that he had been a showman in New York some forty years ago. He emphasized that they had spent many years conditioning my brain and body so they could use me to communicate through with the least possible harm to my physical and mental self. It was a few years later that they decided to dictate a book to me clairaudiently. They entitled the book The Magic Bag. The meaning of this title is fully explained in the book. Then one night in 1947 five of my teachers suddenly appeared to me in the living room of my apartment. That I was "seeing" them clairvoyantly did nothing to lessen my sense of fright, and had they not somehow taken hold of me mentally I would have bolted out my front door and perhaps without opening it! Anyway they quieted me down by assuring me that they were some of the members of the Inner Circle and had no reason to fear them. They then said that their only purpose in showing themselves to me was to have me paint portraits of them. I made pencil sketches of the five and they left saying they would return as time permitted to have me finish the portraits in oils. Some of these portraits have been photographed and incorporated in "the Magic Bag" along with some other that I painted at a later date. (NOTE: Mark was an artist of considerable talent.) In order to publish and disseminate the teachings of the Inner Circle we formed an organization called "Kethra E'DA Foundation." The organization was founded July 6, 1956, and is a non-profit educational foundation."

The teachings that came through Mark delved into almost every branch of human thought. To give a few examples: Flying saucers were verified as actual space beings, not coming from other planets but from the depths of space itself. They do not cross space as we did in going to the moon but emerge from it. The teachers say we will have to learn this emergence before we can safely bring a physical man back from Mars or Venus. Other life does not exist in our solar system but does exist outside, such as the milky way and beyond. The space people are the guardians of the earth and have infiltrated every major government. They are in supreme control. Because of great natural cataclysms that may erupt, they may have to take us off the earth and transplant us on other planets. They say this has been done many times with millions of people in the past. Tales are told of tunnels honeycombing the earth and of pyramids buried under tons of ice at the poles. Religion, they say, is man's creation and is of the earth and the astral frequencies only. It is something we must grow out of and away from as we come out of our hypnotic, conditioned spell of superstition. They see man as asleep and dreaming, caught up in the chemical fury of the matter world, a king of great power that has forgotten his royal blood. They want to give mastery back to man, and listening to the tapes, one begins to wonder. Many, many books could be written and not cover all the subjects. The subjects are being studied by laymen and professionals.

Eventually there began a long series of various communications which opened and prepared the channel for the more profound teachings of the Inner Circle, the sixteen teachers led by E Yada Di Shi'ite. The most frequent and outstanding lecturers besides Yada are: Professor Alfred Luntz, 1812-1893; clergyman for the High Episcopal Church of England.

The tape you sent me, No. 15, a lecture by Yada Di Shi'ite, 11-10-67, "Coming Out Of the Storm" was received by me Friday. What a good time I did have that night.

I think that all the Yada tapes are simply great and you must have some very good equipment to make such good copies.

For many, many years I have asked myself many, many questions about life I thought that there were no answers to. However, time and the Inner Circle have proven me to be incorrect or wrong, and I assure you that I am most happy or highly elated that they have proven me wrong in more ways than one."

E YADA DI SHI'ITE

This personality was born in the city of Kaoti (City of Temples) in a civilization called Yuga (Vast Body), or Yu. This civilization consisted of 180 million people and existed a half million years ago. It was located in the Himalayan Mountains. The word really means "Spirit Life": He was therefore one of the heads of a mystical order called "Shi Ite".

The "Yu" civilization had been founded by a man named Na Sep Ni Ha, meaning the seventh son of a family named "Ha". E Yada was killed in a violent quake that completely destroyed the civilization along with eighty million of its inhabitants. E Yada was about thirty-four when he died and the "Yu" civilization one thousand and twenty-four when it died.

MAHARAJA NATCHA TRAMALAKI

The story concerning this man is that he was of an English mother and an Indian father. He was born in 1848 in Dacca, Bengal Province. His family was extremely wealthy and owned a large estate just outside of Bombay. His father desired that he become a medical man and sent him to medical college at Oxford. But he was by nature a poet and philosopher and so after receiving his final degree in medicine to please his father, he suddenly disappeared. The story is that he spent about ten years traveling in the remotest regions of the world and studying as many of the religious and philosophical beliefs of man as he could lay his hand to. In 1915 he finally came back to his home in Bombay where he died confessing he had found no answer to life that could give him peace of mind; that all questions simply posed more questions and that all answers were simply personal opinions that said nothing. He now says the only answer to life as a whole is to question nothing - just BE, facing all situations with as much detachment as one can muster.

Dear Mr. Rojas - Marcos:

Thank You for your order of the book The Magic Bag. We plan to send it out to you via Air Mail in the morning. I hope you will enjoy reading it.

We are enclosing a few items that might interest you. Note in particular, that you might order our catalogue which I have taken the liberty of checking for you on our order blanks.

In addition, there is a book which we hope to publish in the near future written by Ralph Warren who also wrote the enclosed article.

We primarily deal with cassettes and not transcripts of them because we feel that nothing can replace the impact of actually hearing the Inner Circle speak. Much can be learned from not only what is said, but also from how it is said.

If you would like transcripts however, you might write to:

P.S.

We have an extra copy of "Keys to Inner Space" if you'd like one.
